DEATH TO KOREANS THEY PLAY AT WAR

A Thousand Who Favored Japan Slaughtered

"SWELL-HEADS" IN JAPAN

Newspapers Advise Against This National Vanity and Call Attention to the Loss of Good Will on the Part of Other Nations.

VICTORIA, B. C. July 2.—News was brought by the Empress of China from Korea that nearly a thousand pro-Japanese Koreans, members of the II Chin Hoi, a society favoring Japan, have been murdered by Korean insurgents, according to statistics collected by Japanese officials.

The Korean cabinet, at the direction of Japan, has transferred the Korean private imperial estate to the National assets covering the general situation in Korea since the disbandment of the Korean army.

A notable article appears in the Kokumina, an influential semi-official organ of Tokyo, dealing with foreign criticisms of Japan. The Kokumina calls upon the Japanese people to guard against losing the world's good opinion and says that in contra distinction to the universal respect and good will entertained toward Japan during the war the nation has nearly lost the sympathy of the entire world. This attitude is considered mainly to be on account of the Japanese government's over-anxiety to enlarge the navy beyond the financial capacity of the country.

Commenting on the article, the Japan Times, published by Japanese in English, says:

"Calm reflection shows that the way in which the late war resulted has been applied in many respects both by those in power and by the public in general."

The journal calls upon the Japanese people not to display a swollen head."

News was brought by the Empress of China from Dalm that the dry dock taken from the Russians has been turned over free of expense by the Japanese government to the Kwassaki Dock Company. The Mitsubisi shipyards at Nagasaki are reported to have received orders to build the three warships for China.

San Francisco Harbor Is Scene of Conflict

WATCH OUT FOR TORPEDOES

Guarding Against Attacks From Torpedo Boats and Trying to Throw Searchlights on Them Prove Exciting Enough For Officers and Men.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—War vessels in this harbor have been playing at the game of war for several nights, simulating that the busy waters of the harbor are the conditions which prevail in actual warfare. The maneuvers have been under the direction of Lt. Commander R. McLean of the admiral's staff on the Connecticut. For several nights the game consisted in giving the torpedo boats an opportunity to hide themselves behind Goat Island or any of the numerous crafes on the bay and then after a time, trying to prevent them from sneaking to within a radius of 1,000 yards of any give none of the battleships in Man of War Row without being picked up by the search lights of the battleships.

Last night, besides the searchlight drill, the contest included the operation of the big guns on the battleships and the crews of the battleships being kept in readiness to turn their batteries on the members of the mosquito fleet at any minute. The combination of searchlight drill and gun drill made an exciting evening for officers and men.

ADMIRAL HAS GOUT

The result of the operation was to greatly relieve the admiral who apart from this complaint is well and cheerful.

Within a few days further announcement is expected as to the plans the Association has made for the continuance of the meeting. Assurance are given that it will continue for the full twenty days allotted by the Jockey Club, but the quality of the racing remains uncertain.
